Licensed to Wed.

Marriage licenses were yesterday issued to Walter Phipps, aged thirty-four, of Chicago, and Anna Harrigan, aged twenty-eight, of Philadelphia, and to Harry Weigand, aged twenty-three, and Lizzie McCarthy, aged twenty-one, both of McKeesport.

Frozen Beer.

The Reymann Brewing Company is a severe sufferer by the cold spell. They shipped a number of car loads of bottled beer to their various agencies, which unfortunately struck the cold wave. Now they have nothing to do but redeem broken bottles, cracked by frost, the beer spilled and the freight to pay—in fact the season's cold spell cost the company about $1,000.

Yesterday's Police Court.

In the absence of Mayor Caldwell, President Maxwell, of the Second branch of council, presided in the police court yesterday, and acted on seventeen cases. One disorderly case was fined $1 and costs. The proprietors of the poker rooms that were raided the night before were fined $20 and costs and the players $5 and costs each. The three keepers of houses of ill fame were also fined $20 and costs each and the inmates $5 and costs. In all there were twenty-two cases.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: January 29 by H. M. Russell to S. C. Patterson, for $270, lot 17 on the south side of the National road, near Altenheim.

February 13 by Theodore Boers, executor of Charles Nest, to Henry Lorentz, for $1,100, the east half of lot 23 A in division D, and the west half of lot 23 B in division D, of the Lamb and Russell Caldwell addition.

February 11 by the Greenwood Cemetery Association to Robert E. Lee Robinson, for $47.50, the west half of lot 106 in that cemetery.

A Home for Fallen Women.

The Women's Christian Temperance Union of this city have finally decided to open a refuge for fallen women and girls, and will have it ready for the rescue of those who need such a haven just as soon as possible. The project has been talked of for some time, and is now on a sound footing. The women of the society are seeking a suitable house, and as soon as one is found will rent it. The project is one which should receive the substantial encouragement of all who have the public good at heart. A meeting of the society will be held at Mrs. Isaiah Warren's, No. 37 Thirteenth street, on Saturday at 2 p. m.

OPERA HOUSE ORCHESTRA.

Its Annual Promenade Concert and Ball Friday Night.

Friday evening at the Arion hall the Opera House orchestra will give its annual promenade concert and ball. A very attractive programme has been arranged for the event, as follows:
March—"Vivat Hoch der Jungfrau"—L. Hintze
Overture—"The Crown Diamond"—R. Wagner
Waltz—"Sounds of Nature"—Mueller
Humorous Potpourri—"Ein Jaumarkt in Knechtvinkel"—A. Schreiner
a. Quiet Morning
b. Parade of the Little Company.
c. Mine Museum.
d. Little Dutch.
e. Carousal.
f. Little German Band.
g. In the Circus.
h. Italian Circus Grinner.
i. In the Tavern.
j. Public Dance with Fight.
Carnival Polka—"Schumann, Schumann"
K. Elfenberg
Humorous Fantasia for Clarinet—"Smaller an Smaller"—C. Schreiner
(Can be played only when the moon is declining.)
Gallio—"Mother-in-Law's Denature"—C. Elfenberg
The concert will be followed by a ball, and both events promise to be among the most creditable of the many admirable ones ever given by the organization.

A Humorous Fact

About Hood's Sarsaparilla—it expels bad humor and creates good humor. A battle for blood is what Hood's Sarsaparilla vigorously fights, and it is always victorious in expelling foul taints and giving the vital fluid the quality and purity of perfect health. It cures eczema, salt rheum, boils and other blood diseases.

Hood's Pills acts easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the bowels and liver. 25c.

The Pan-Handle Dyeing establishment, owned by John Heilmeyer, at No. 1431 Market street, is the best equipped house of its kind in Wheeling. In addition to the dyeing and cleaning departments a corps of first-class tailors are employed, who can do repairing as neat as it is possible. Clothes and ladies' garments, cleaned or dyed, can be made to look like new. Satisfaction guaranteed.

O. W. O. HANDMAN, sheriff of Tyler county, W. Va., appreciates a good thing and does not hesitate to say so. He was almost prostrated with a cold when he procured a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He says: "It gave me prompt relief. I find it to be an invaluable remedy for coughs and colds."

ALE is the best drink; Smith's is the best ale.

LOCAL BRIEVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THE GRAND this evening—Bob Fitzsimmons's Company.

Opera House this evening—Children's Home anniversary celebration.

Wild ducks were seen in large numbers up near the Sister Islands yesterday.

Primrose & West's minstrels will be the attraction at the Opera House next Tuesday evening.

This is St. Valentine's day, and the day seems to be observed about as generally as usual, and in the old way. The comic valentines predominate, however.

The cold weather continues, but the temperature has moderated enough to make sleighing and coasting enjoyable, and these sports are again much in vogue.

The Initiating "team" of Wheeling Union No. 345, E. A. U., visited Ohio Valley Union No. 873, last evening, at McMechen, and initiated fourteen candidates.

The board of county commissioners met yesterday and made the annual inventory of the poor house and farm. Everything was found in good condition on the premises.

YESTERDAY Sadie E. Thompson was granted a divorce from Charles E. Thompson, and restored to her maiden name of McClanahan. Judge Pauli rendered the decision.

One of the coming social events of the season before Lent is the select hop to be given by Will Nickson, John Adolph, August Harting and Will Weiner at Egerton hall on the 21st of the month. This is no "ticket affair," and promises to be one of the most elaborate of the season. George L. Darst has been employed to attend to refreshments and Prof. Charles Killmyer will officiate at the piano.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

W. C. McBride, of Washington Pa., was a guest of the McClure yesterday.

Miss Mary Taylor and brother have gone to Washington City on an extended visit.

Will H. Colvig, of Main street, has returned from New York where he went on a business trip.

Mr. Fry has returned from New York, where he had gone with his wife's remains, to bury her.

Superintendent of Schools W. H. Anderson is confined to his home by illness, which, however, is not considered serious.

Among the arrivals at the Windsor yesterday were H. W. Paul and S. R. Caldwell, of Wellsburg, and J. M. Allen, of Gratton.

Prof. Riccardo Ricci, of Pittsburgh, and once the boasted basso of Wheeling, autographed himself at the Windsor last night.

W. J. Burdett and P. J. O'Neil, of New York, glass buyers for their establishments in the metropolis of the country are registered at the Windsor.

Among the prominent arrivals at the McClure yesterday were: Mrs. Topping, Kansas City; J. D. Lippencott, Pittsburgh; F. Wm. Kane, Morgantown, W. Va.

S. Thomas Tierney, of Weston, registered at the Stamm house last evening. The other arrivals were: A. M. Campbell, of St. Mary's; George C. Griffith, of Mondaville, and Joseph Hartmann, Jr., of Mannington.

The West Virginians who registered at the Behler yesterday were: C. P. Carothers and wife and Mrs. M. E. Smith, of Sisteraville; Andy Clark, of Dean; John Hendershot, of Huntington, and M. Harvey, of New Martinsville.

Mr. Otto Burlage, formerly of Detroit, who has been a resident of Wheeling for several years, has returned to the city by the lake. While here he was in the meat commission business, and a large circle of friends regret that he leaves this community.

An Attractive Entertainment.

On Friday morning seats will be reserved at the Young Men's Christian Association building for the entertainment by Edward P. Elliott, the distinguished impersonator, on next Monday. "The entertainment given last evening at the opera house, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., star course, by Edward P. Elliott, was probably the finest of the kind ever presented in this city. His facial expression was remarkable. The difficult task of representing the eleven characters seemed to him perfectly simple. One almost forgot the actor, and seemed to see the eleven. As an entertainer Mr. Elliott has few equals."—Lansing (Mich.) State Republican.

Bob Fitzsimmons.

Bob Fitzsimmons, at the head of his own select company, appears at the Grand the last three nights of this week with a matinee Saturday. The management claim they have one of the strongest vaudeville shows on the road this season, among the stars being Howley & Doyle, Howard & Emerson, Four Fitzgibbons' Family, Gordon & Lick, Barron & Forrest, Nellie Franklin, William H. Whittle, Joe Hardman and John R. Hearty. Reserved seats are now on sale at the Grand box office.

Pauline Hall in "Dorcas."

"Dorcas," a musical comedy, was given at the Opera House last night by Pauline Hall and her company. It is one of those charming and possible farces which everybody enjoys when delicately done—just on the verge of offense, but never offending. A large audience was delighted by the artistic performance. Miss Hall has lost none of her power to charm, and her support, as usual, was good.

SUITS AND OVERCOATS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

STILL DRIVING THOSE

Suits and Overcoats.

Prices have to be very low to exceed the limits of your wildest imagination about BUYING BARGAINS. But it's February, the dullest month of the year. We have an unusually large Stock of Suits and Overcoats yet on hand, although our sales in the last thirty days have been phenomenal. The cut in prices is therefore naturally heavier, away below any other house to bring it, where it is an actual benefit to buy, whether for present or future use. Provide yourself now. It's our honest advice. Our elegant line of Boys' and Children's Overcoats included in this sale. You can't afford to pass it by. Come early or late you will find others on the same errand at "Great Reductions!" "Half-Price Sales!" and "Goods at Cost!" usually means undesirable things that must be fairly kicked out if they are to go out.

Here are two brilliant exceptions: Suits that we've been getting twenty-two, twenty and eighteen dollars for are now "Fifteen Dollars."

And five dollar Trousers go at "Three-Fifty."
